The woman in this painting is wearing a filmy white jama and tight orange paijama. Her pearl earrings and bangles are typical South India style. Her side-view face is also Indian style. However, the blue-green background wash and the flower design of the border show Persian influence.

Description taken from the 'Art From The Indian Sub-Continent In The Sainsbury Centre' catalogue by Margaret A. Willey (Sainsbury Centre, UEA, 1995).
